THE CHURCH IS WHAT WE DO NEXT

I recently watched the movie, Conclave. It is a fictional depiction of the secretive papal election following the death of the Pope. The movie has been described as exploring the universal themes of faith, doubt, ambition and the challenges of maintaining tradition in a changing world, as the potential candidates for being the next Pope, vie for the position.

The candidates represent the broad spectrum of the Catholic Church – the traditionalist, the progressive and everything in between. In the midst of the internal fighting, one quote particularly stood out for me as one candidate focuses on the meaning of being church rather than individual beliefs and dreams.

He said, “We have only been concerned with ourselves, with Rome, with these elections, with power.

But these things are not the church.

The church is not tradition.

The church is not the past.

The church is what we do next.

The church is what we do next. Let that sink in.

As we struggle at times with being church, I believe we tend to turn inwards; to when things were going well, to what we are comfortable with personally; to what we know.

The question we need to be wrestling with is what do we do next? What is God calling us into as we partner with God in God’s mission in our neighbourhood, our town our world?

Who are we as a congregation?

What has God called us to do or be?

Who is our neighbour?

Contemplating these questions gets to the heart of understanding our identity as communities of faith, our sense of purpose and our relationship with God. These conversations can begin to help us flourish as the church.

SPRING BRINGS NEW HOPE AND A FRESH START

We are just moving into the season of Spring. Spring is consistently described as a time of renewal because it marks the end of winter and the rebirth of nature, with new growth in plants and increased activity in the environment. This natural cycle inspires a sense of personal renewal, encouraging people to set new goals, embrace new experiences, and let go of negativity, a concept celebrated through cultural festivals and personal traditions worldwide.

The powerful energy of spring can be seen as a spiritual awakening, a time for nurturing one's faith, and fostering a sense of positivity. The reawakening of nature also encourages people to connect with others, enjoy the outdoors, and engage in community activities.

We are excited to welcome Pastor Kingson Selvaraj into our church community as our interim minister for the next four months May we embrace the new opportunities this new relationship offers us all.

160th ANNIVERSARY SERVICE

Our 160th Anniversary Service was a great success with one hundred people in attendance and an augmented choir of eighteen. We sincerely thank Rev Dr Jonathan Barker for leading our worship and Rev

Peter Morel (Moderator Uniting Church SA) for being our guest preacher. With the contribution of the choir and magnificent organ music, the worship was uplifting. Celebrations continued at the Morning Tea which followed, with a plethora of delicious food and lively conversation. We extend our sincere thanks to our willing band of workers for all their efforts to prepare and execute the event on the day

NEW MINISTRY

We are delighted to welcome Pastor Kingson Selvaraj as our Interim Minister for four months commencing on 1st September and concluding on 31st December 2025. Kingson was born in India where he belonged to the Church of South India. While in India, Kingson completed a Master's Degree in Social Work and Business Administration and migrated to Australia in 2007. Kingson and his wife, Geetha married in Kew Anglican Church in Melbourne. Geetha has a bachelor degree in Dental Surgery, and since being in Australia has graduated as a Registered Nurse..

Kingson has completed his Bachelor of Ministry through the Uniting College and currently is a candidate for the Ministry of Word in the Uniting Church. He has considerable experience as a lay preacher and for the past year has been Youth Pastor at Payneham Road Uniting Church.

NEWS OF OUR PEOPLE

It was with great sadness that we received the news of the passing of our dear friend and member of this church, John Beard. In his working life, John was a postman, delivering mail on his pushbike. He still enjoyed cycling until relatively recently when his health began to decline because of complications related to his diabetes. John was passionate about gardening and often brought along fresh produce or dried fruits to share with members of the congregation. He was a regular attendee at Sunday morning worship and morning tea following worship, but always liked to get home in time to watch Landline on the ABC. John enjoyed the fellowship he found at this church and joined in with social events such as barbecues, working bees, church lunches and Bible Study groups. We will miss him! Vale John!

Elise Jenkin has settled in to her new home at Eldercare Goodwood. It is a beautiful new establishment and Elise is happy in her new environment. Her daughter, Kendall accompanied her to our Anniversary service.
